

U.S.-China trade war: Europe and Asia-Pacific become main destinations for corporate relocation

Weekly Facts & Figures.

- Strategic shift: 30% of Chinese firms in the U.S. now consider relocating to Asia-Pacific, 27% to Europe — up from 22% and 13%.
- U.S. exodus: Only 13% of Chinese firms in the U.S. plan to expand there.
- European momentum: 24% of U.S. companies may move production from China to Europe, up from 11%.

What This Means.

As U.S. and Chinese companies move in, Europe faces a new era of intensified competition — and fresh opportunity.
