Weekly Facts & Figures.

- U.S. cutoff: China halted all direct gallium exports to the U.S. after August 2023. Volumes dropped to zero.
- Licensed exports: Exports to Germany, Japan, South Korea, and others resumed under license, but disruptions persist.
- Controls codified: In December 2024, China formalized its export regime for gallium and germanium.

What This Means.

“This isn’t just a supply chain issue, but rather strategic pressure in action. Businesses are now operating on geopolitical fault lines.”
